PARALLAX

A luxury of detail

Subtlety is the appeal of Parallax, with its discreet textures, accompanied by changes of planes and superimposed layers, an enveloping atmosphere is created that is as austere as it is attractive.

Parallax by Arcana Cerámica is a porcelain collection designed with an emphasis on conveying a delicate and timeless elegance. Its aim is to technically and aesthetically satisfy the needs of the most demanding contemporary architecture.

Parallax offers an interior design concept that is as prudent as it is innovative, with varied formats, bold colors and soft reliefs.

Small nuances give richness to surfaces. The true luxury is in the detail.
